

Interval International Support CTO Foundation

Published on: June 26, 2008

Interval International and its member resorts continued their financial support of education in the Caribbean with a $25,000 donation to the Caribbean Tourism Organization (CTO) Foundation. The check was presented by David Callaghan, vice president of resort sales and service for Interval International, to Jacqueline Johnson, chairman, CTO Foundation, and Richard "Ricky" Skerritt, first vice chairman of CTO and minister of state in the Ministry of Tourism, Sports, and Culture, St. Kitts & Nevis. The CTO Foundation awards scholarships and study grants to Caribbean nationals from CTO-member countries who wish to pursue studies in the areas of tourism, hospitality, and language training. Interval and its member resorts have collectively donated $160,000 to this organization over the last nine years. Since its beginning in 1997, the Foundation has awarded 43 scholarships and 84 study grants amounting to more than $647,000. Interval International is a leading provider of exchange, travel, and leisure services to resort developers and vacationers worldwide. Visit www.intervalworld.com.
